

VOCAL DUO · SINGER-SONGWRITER

Unplugged Legends

Two conservatory-trained brothers, two guitars — the singer-songwriter era, intimately reborn.

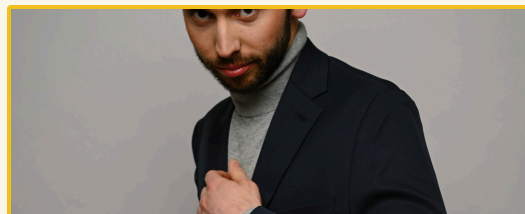

Unplugged Legends is a heartfelt, acoustic-driven celebration of the late-'60s and '70s singer-songwriter movement — James Taylor, Cat Stevens, Jim Croce, Simon & Garfunkel, John Denver and more. Two brothers in tight harmony strip these songs to their emotional core, with stories about the artists and the era between numbers.

SELECTED HIGHLIGHTS

- ◆ Two conservatory-trained brothers — NYU & Lawrence University
- ◆ Jack Murphy: Ohio Light Opera resident artist; NATS national first-place (three regions)
- ◆ Premiered at David Geffen Hall, Radio City Music Hall & Yankee Stadium
- ◆ Michael Murphy: recording artist, collaborator with Steve March-Tormé

“All we ever did growing up was play music together — Unplugged Legends is that, finally shared with an audience.”

— MICHAEL MURPHY
