Unplugged Legends

Brothers in harmony, a four-piece band, and the songbook everyone grew up on.

Unplugged Legends is a heartfelt, acoustic-driven celebration of the late-'60s and early-'70s folk and singer-songwriter movement: Jim Croce, Cat Stevens, Simon & Garfunkel, James Taylor, Gordon Lightfoot, Loggins and Messina and more. Built around brothers Michael and Jack Murphy, who have played and sung together as a duo for over a decade, the show is performed by a four-piece band, interwoven with stories about the artists and the era.
